OUR MISSION

The Joan Nicole Prince Home, also known as the Schenectady Community Home, is dedicated to providing a safe, comfortable and caring residence for terminally ill patients during their final days.

We are located in a residential neighborhood in Scotia, NY, and provide 24-hour bedside care for residents who have a prognosis of three months or less. The home is primarily staffed by volunteers and relies solely on community support for funding.
